NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

Why does the SOUTH DAKOTA SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT HALL OF FAME exist?

The South Dakota Solid Waste Management (SDSWMA) Hall of Fame provides recognition for individuals whose accomplishments in their field(s) provide inspiration to the organization and to future generations.

Who may nominate an individual to be considered?

Any member of SDSWMA may nominate an individual, living or deceased, to be considered for induction into the South Dakota Solid Waste Management Hall of Fame. Self-nomination is not permitted, and those currently serving on the South Dakota Solid Waste Management Board of Directors or its staff are not permitted to nominate individuals.

Who may be nominated?

Nominees must have resided in South Dakota for a portion of their life. The nominee must exemplify the meaning of excellence, demonstrating qualifications, attributes and achievement(s) in the selected category that are exemplary and distinguished.

LOOKING FOR ALL AREAS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

To showcase South Dakota Solid Waste's finest, we accept nominations in five categories to cover any area of accomplishment within the field of Solid Waste. The following are general descriptions of each category;

- Solid Waste: Includes handling of Municipal Solid Waste (MSW) to include landfills, transfer stations or rubble sites.
- Recycling: Includes any aspect of Recycling, Composting, Re-use or marketing.
- Haulers: Includes transportation of MSW, Residential/Commercial Pickups, Industry leadership and Development of Haulers.
- Professional: Includes Engineering, Regulation and Development.
- General: Encompasses individuals who have contributed to the development of the Solid Waste Industry in South Dakota in any manner.
